LISTEN | EVALUATE | OPINE®

Leanne Gould is a forensic accountant and business appraiser with over 20 years of experience providing financial advisory and expert witness services in the areas of forensic accounting, business valuation, and financial/data analysis. She assists her clients and counsel to understand complex financial and valuation issues in a variety of disputed matters by listening, evaluating the facts and documents in the case, and explaining her findings clearly and in a practical manner. Leanne has provided services in complex commercial and bankruptcy disputes before federal and state courts and arbitration panels across the nation including:

- Analysis of solvency and reasonably equivalent value received in exchange for a business or minority business interest in avoidance actions brought under §§ 544, 547 and 548 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act (UFTA) and related state statutes,
- Asset tracing and other forensic accounting services in cases involving claims of fraud, conversion, misappropriation embezzlement, successor liability and alter-ego including transactions in multi-tiered entities and through shell corporations,
- Calculation of economic damages in breach of contract, loss of income, business interruption, and business tort claims,
- Business valuation in disputed shareholder buy-outs and shareholder oppression matters,
- Analysis of employee data in collective and class actions including claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and similar state statutes, and
- Analysis of transactional data in medical billing, contract disputes and class actions.

Leanne grew up in Upstate New York and was accepted into the accelerated MBA program at the State University of New York at Buffalo where she received her Bachelor of Science and Master of Business Administration in five (5) years. She is a licensed CPA in Georgia, an Accredited Senior Appraiser of the American Society of Appraisers and is Accredited in Business Valuation and Certified in Financial Forensics by the AICPA.

Leanne is a member of the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation where she co-founded the Georgia Network. She is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute (Southeast Advisory Board Member 2010-2014), Turnaround Management Association, Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors (Programs Committee 2017-18), Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants, and a Corporate Member of DRI (Women in the Law Planning Committee 2019-2020).

Leanne leads presentations and panel discussions for professional organizations and law firms on a variety of topics including forensic accounting, business valuation, voidable transactions, economic damages, and issues impacting distressed businesses and insolvency professionals.

She serves the community as a Catalyst Society Member of the Atlanta Women's Foundation, supports Janie's House, a safe haven for abused/neglected young women and girls and Reach for Excellence, an academic and leadership enrichment program as a contributor and classroom guest speaker.
